

Lunch: 12:30-2:15

Ober Dining Room, Main Floor, Schwitzer Center

Keynote Address: John Dittmer, DePauw University

"Civil Rights Anniversaries: The Brown Decision, Freedom Summer,
and the Legacy of the Civil Rights Movement"

Round III: 2:30-4:00

Session 1: Schwitzer Center Room 010

Race and Historical Memory

Moderator: Kevin Smith, Ball State University

Christopher G. Bates, University of California, Los Angeles, "The Civil War and Civil Rights: Manassas and Gettysburg, 1961-1963"

Comments: James H. Madison, Indiana University

Session 2: Schwitzer Center Room 012

Indiana Council for History Education

Round Table

Presiding: William B. Pickett, Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology

Participants: Members, Indiana Council for History Education

Nancy Wolfe, Indiana Historical Society

JoAnn Fox, Hamilton Southeastern Schools

Kathy Kozenski, Geography Educators' Network of Indiana

Session 3: Schwitzer Center Room 011

Religion and Civil Rights

Moderator: Robert Barrows, IUPUI

Samuel G. London, Jr., Purdue University, "The Social Gospel and the Civil Rights Movement"

Nancy Nakano Conner, IUPUI, "Indiana's Role in the World War II
Relocation of Japanese Americans"

Comments: Carol Hunter, Earlham College

End of Annual Meeting

4:15-? Schwitzer Center Room 012

Meeting of the Editorial Board of the Indiana Magazine of History

Twenty-Fourth Annual Meeting

Indiana Association of Historians

February 27-28, 2004

Indianapolis, Indiana

Sponsored by
The University of Indianapolis

“Civil Rights in Historical Perspective”

Friday, February 27, 2004

All sessions will be held in the lower level of Schwitzer Center on the campus of the University of Indianapolis.

3:00 p.m. Schwitzer Center Room 004
Executive Council Business Meeting

7:00 p.m. Schwitzer Center Room 010
Business Meeting
Round Table Discussion on School Desegregation and Busing in Indianapolis
Reception to follow

Saturday, February 28, 2004

8:15-9:00—Schwitzer Center, Lower Concourse
Continental Breakfast and Registration

Round I: 9:00-10:45

Session 1: Schwitzer Center Room 011
Teaching Race: A Round Table Discussion
Participants: History Faculty, DePauw University

David Gellman Tiyi Morris
John Schlotterbeck John Dittmer
Barbara Steinson

Session 2: Schwitzer Center Room 012
Beyond the Factory: Work Community, and Conflict in the Industrial Heartland
Moderator: Ted Frantz, University of Indianapolis
Scott E. Randolph, Purdue University, “Tramps, Trainmen and Travelers: Work, Conflict and Identity during the Great Depression”
Gregory M. Miller, University of Toledo, “The Blue-Collar Blues, Revisited: The Lordstown Strike of 1972 and the Retention of the Moral Economy”
John L. Woods, Purdue University, “High Stakes and Last Stands: Transnational Unionism in the 1976 Rubber Worker’s Strike”
Comments: Jeffrey Vincent, Indiana University

Session 3: Schwitzer Center Room 010
Legal Issues and Civil Rights
Moderator: David Anderson, University of Indianapolis
Dave Peavler, Butler County Community College, Kansas, “The Origins of Segregated Secondary Education in Kansas: The Creation of Summer High School”
Bruce A. Breeding, University of Georgia, “‘Right in the Sight of God’: Hoxie, Arkansas, and the First Defense of Brown”
Comments: Phyllis Boanes, Earlham College

Round II: 11:00-12:15

Session 1: Schwitzer Center Room 010
Local Black Communities and Their Role in Establishing Indiana’s Black Voice During the Civil Right’s Movement
Moderator: Valerie Grim, Indiana University,
Audrey L. Jefferson, Indiana University, “Peru, Indiana’s Black Community and the Search for Social and Political Voice”
Cristy Casado Tondeur, University of Massachusetts, “The Role of the NAACP in Evansville, Indiana’s Fight for Economic Justice in the 1960’s”
Comments: John Glen, Ball State University

Session 2: Schwitzer Center Room 012
Individual Struggles for Civil Rights
Moderator: Wilma Gibbs, Indiana Historical Society
Robert S. Smith, University of North Carolina, Charlotte, “A Profile of Black Protest: Willie Boyd and the Landmark Supreme Court Decision Griggs v. Duke Power”
Herman Graham III, Denison University, “Aaron Henry and the Politics of Freedom in Mississippi, 1963-1964”
Comments: Owen Dwyer, IUPUI

Session 3: Schwitzer Center Room 011
Artistic Expression and Civil Rights
Moderator: Nancy F. Gabin, Purdue University
Ann O’Bryan, IUPUI, “The Beech Settlement: Free African Americans, Literature, and Education in Rush County, Indiana in the Mid-Nineteenth Century”
Michelle Wick Patterson, Earlham College, “Folk Music and Civil Rights: The New York Music School Settlement for Colored People”
Comments: James Lane, Indiana University, Northwest