

The Indiana Association of Historians Thirty-fourth Annual Meeting

Conflict and Transformation

March 8, 2014

Hosted by the Department of History, Anderson University
Anderson, Indiana

Please note: Attendance at the IAH Annual Meeting requires registration.

The Keynote address on Saturday at 1:00 pm is open to the public without charge.

Saturday, March 8th

8:00-8:45 Registration – Flagship
Continental Breakfast

8:45-10:15 Concurrent Sessions I

I.A. - Remembering Why They Fought: Race, Civil War Veteran and Auxiliary Organizations, and the Memory of the Union Cause

- “This Will Be Our History and Our Glory: Civil War Memories and the Grand Army of the Republic” –
 - Nicolas W. Sacco, (Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis)
- “Whether Her Heart is White and Loyal: Race, Civil War Memory, and the Woman’s Relief Corp”
 - John C. Kennedy, (Purdue University)
- “Dramatic Memoirs: Racism and Memorialization in the Theatre of the Grand Army of the Republic, 1880-1920”
 - Tyler D. Sperrazza, (Pennsylvania State University)
- Chair and Commentator: Antoinette G. van Zelm, (Middle Tennessee State University)

I.B - Digital History: Transforming Teaching and Research

- “Excel: A Research Tool for Historians”
 - Nancy Brown, (Purdue University)
- “Nouns and their networks: Tracing patterns of historical change and continuity by combining text mining and network analysis”

- Kalani Craig, (Indiana University, Bloomington)
- “Open Access and the Digital Commons”
 - Jason Kelly (Indiana University, Indianapolis)
- “Teaching Digital History Theory and Methods for Graduate Students”
 - Doug Seefeldt, (Ball State University)

10:15-10:30 a.m. Break

10:30-12:00 a.m. Concurrent Sessions II

II.A - Struggles for the Soul: Transformation and Conflict in Modern American Evangelicalism

- “Visions of Progress: The Wheeler City Rescue Mission and Social Change in Twentieth-Century Indianapolis”
 - Amanda Koch, (Indiana University Bloomington)
- “Evangelicals, Prayer, and the Schoolhouse: Shifting Rhetoric from Engel v. Vitale to the Moral Majority”
 - Rachel Coleman, (Indiana University, Bloomington)
- “Innovation, Populism, and the Conflict of Authority in American Protestantism: The Case of the Emerging Church Movement”
 - Travis Warren Cooper, (Indiana University, Bloomington)

II.B. - Organizing the Home Front in Civil War Indiana

- “County Governments Relief for Soldiers’ Families in Indiana during the Civil War”
 - Anita Morgan, (Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis)
- “Becoming Soldiers”
 - A. James Fuller, (University of Indianapolis)
- Chair & Commentator: Nicole Etcheson, Ball State University

12:10 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. Luncheon Program – Banquet Room, Flagship Center – Welcome – David T. Murphy (Anderson University), IAH President

1:00-2:00 – Indiana Association of Historians Annual Meeting Keynote Address
 Lawrence Sondhaus – Univ. of Indianapolis
 "The United States and the Great War, 1914-1917"

2:15-3:45 p.m. – Concurrent Sessions III

III.A. – Identities in Transformation: Trade, Faith, and the State in 17th Century Europe

- “Englishness in the Levant: Factoring Trade into English Identity, 1640-1660”
 - Zachary W. Shulz, (Purdue University)
- “The Thirty Years’ War and Cultural Change in Protestant Germany”
 - Richard Gawthrop, (Franklin College)
- “Jetons from La Rochelle: French Royal Propaganda during the Siege of 1627-1628”
 - Ed Gray, (Crimson)
- Chair & Commentator- David T. Murphy, Anderson University

III.B. – Legacies of the Rebellion: Law, Symbolism, and Memory in the Aftermath of the Civil War

- “Confederate Island Upon the Union’s ‘Most Hallowed Ground’”
 - Michael B. Chornesky (Purdue University)
- “The Putrid Carcass of Slavery: Kentucky’s Southern Streak in the Aftermath of Emancipation”
 - Brian Alberts, (Purdue University)
- “Sisters of Charity: Civil War Nurses and Symbols of Peace”
 - Katherine Coon Badertscher
- Chair and Commentator: Brian R. Dirck, (Anderson University)

2:15-3:45 Concurrent Sessions IV

IV.A. – Sickness, Sex, and the Strenuous Life in the Great War

- “Theodore Roosevelt and World War One”
 - Daniel P. Murphy, (Hanover College)
- “Guns, Germs, and Indiana Basketball, 1915-1920.”
 - S. Chandler Lighty, (Indiana Public Library)
- “Silenced by the State: The Allied Politicization of Sexually Violated Women in the First World War”
 - Kristen Blankenbaker, (Purdue University)
- Chair and Commentator: Joel D. Shrock, (Anderson University)

IV.B. – After the Apocalypse: Perspectives on Diplomacy, Popular Culture and Science during the Interwar Era.

- “Marshal Foch in the Midwest: The American Legion and the Franco-American Friendship in Post WWI America”
 - Amy Harris, (Purdue University)
- “The Transformation of DC Comics Superheroes: From Depression era Vigilantes to Allied Propagandists of World War II”
 - Andrew Fogel, (Purdue University)
- “Explorers Statesmen, and Soldiers: The Transformation of German Scientific Exploration between the Wars”
 - David T. Murphy, (Anderson University)
- Chair and Commentator: Daniel P. Murphy, (Hanover College)

IV.C – Fighters, Philanthropists and the Urban Setting of Modernity

- “Giving along the Way: Placing Madam C.J. Walker’s Philanthropy in Historical Context”
 - Tyrone McKinley Freeman, (IUPUI)
- “Textbook of the Present: Textbook of the Future”
 - Ronald Vaughn Morris, (Ball State University)
- “The Urban Garrison: The Social and Spatial Significance of Military Infrastructure on City Development”
 - John E. Fahey, (Purdue University)

3:50-4:30 p.m. - Indiana Association of Historians Business Meeting

4:10 p.m. – Indiana Magazine of History Board Meeting

Indiana Association of Historians Program Committee:

Nancy Conner

Nancy Gabin

James Fuller

David T. Murphy

Joel D. Shrock